is future*

Quality and distinction for your bread products

Your bread is unlike other bread. It has its own distinct signature, its own distinct colour, its own distinct flavour. For a century and a half, Royal Buisman has been providing the caramelised sugars that give your bread just that extra special touch -cost effectively. Adding our signature to yours.

That little bit extra

Caramelised sugars, provided by Royal Buisman in convenient powdered and liquid form, deliver the final touch for artisanal off-whites, rustic darks, multiseed specialties and fruit-nut varieties with equal ease. Guaranteed free of e-numbers, our caramels contribute to a multitude of flavour profiles and signature needs, replacing more expensive malt extracts.

The secret: caramelised sugars

Better flavour.

Warmer colour tones.

Natural appearance and glaze.

No gluten, no acrylamide.

And so, cleaner labels.

Achieve considerable cost savings by (partly) replacing your malt extract.

All this with easy integration into your manufacturing processes.

Royal Buisman offer two options to achieve all this, and more

- Natural Caramelised Sugars. These intensify crumb colour, enrich natural mild flavours and add sweet or bitter roast tones to your signature products. The result: a more distinctive character.

- Traditional Caramelised Sugars. These are used to strengthen the rustic character and aromatic mocha nature of bread products by focussing on nutty tones.

Both natural and traditional caramelised sugars are 100% pure powder, requiring low dosages -which means high cost effectivity.
